Management & Business Employment Forecast

(Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics: Occupational Outlook Handbook, 2008-2009)

- Employment of top executives—including chief executives, general and operations managers, and legislators—is expected to grow 2% from 2006 to 2016.
- Experienced managers whose accomplishments reflect strong leadership qualities and the ability to improve the efficiency or competitive position of an organization will have the best opportunities. In an increasingly global economy, experience in international economics, marketing, information systems, and knowledge of several languages also may be beneficial.
